Red Gates is a school for children with severe learning difficulties, profound learning difficulties and autism for pupils aged 4 - 11 years old. We are a busy vibrant learning community committed to providing a high quality education to our learners in collaboration with a wide range of partners.

We pride ourselves on the quality of each individual pupil's education and our work with families and carers. Working in partnership, we strive to achieve the very best for each child and offer support and guidance to families to enable consistency across home and school.

The vacancy is for lunchtime support assistants and duties will include supporting the children to eat their lunch, toileting, helping them to play and supervising the playground. There are also opportunities to do occasional work as a relief teaching assistant. We need staff with a caring responsible attitude, high expectations, excellent attendance and the ability to work in a team.

This role involves support in the dining hall and playground and includes physical work and personal care

Qualifications/Experience required
