Red Gates is a school for children with severe learning difficulties, and autism for pupils aged 4 - 11 years old. We are a busy vibrant learning community committed to providing a high quality education to our learners in collaboration with a wide range of partners.

We pride ourselves on the quality of each individual pupil's education and our work with families and carers. Working in partnership, we strive to achieve the very best for each child and offer support and guidance to families to enable consistency across home and school.

We are looking for enthusiastic, creative and energetic teaching assistants to support the learning and development of our pupils in order to help them achieve their full potential. We need staff with a caring responsible attitude, high expectations, excellent attendance and the ability to work in a team.

This role involves support in the classroom and includes physical work and personal care
